LifeLine Groups

Why Does Collin Creek Community Church Do LifeLine Groups?

We believe that this is the place where significant life change occurs. LifeLine Groups are where real life and real issues are discussed. This is the environment where we celebrate the successes and good times of life, as well as comfort one another during the tough and disappointing times. It is a place to serve, be encouraged, equipped, and challenged to a BIG FAITH!

What If No Groups Meet When I Can Meet?

Perhaps God is encouraging the start of a new group with you as the catalyst. Let us know what you need and we will try to make it happen.

When Do LifeLine Groups Meet?

Each group decides when and where to it wants to meet. We can help you find groups that are meeting on a particular night or in a certain area of the city and connect you with them.

What Kinds Of Groups Are There?

Most of our ongoing groups are mixed groups or women's groups. Each fall the men of CCC form short-term groups to challenge and give accountability.

How Long Does A LifeLine Group Last?

Many LifeLine Groups form and commit to meet for 18-24 months. We encourage individuals to try out a group and see if the timing and relationships work for them. If not, they are encouraged to try a different group.

What If I Have Questions Or Am Ready To Join?

You can speak to the leader of any group that is currently meeting or contact Dwight Nash at 972.618.2222 or dnash@collincreekcommunity.org.

Remember, we are better together!
